

NEW YORK WEEKLY WHIG.

The constant calls at our office for a weekly paper have induced us to commence the "New York Weekly Whig." We have secured considerable experience in order to furnish our correspondents with a sheet sufficiently large to contain all the necessary matter expected in a weekly paper. We have present the best and LARGEST PAPER IN THE UNITED STATES.

On Politics our course is already known; our editorial is comprehensive, moderate and candid, with enough firmness and decision to convince our adversaries that they cannot drive us from the field while there is a rag of the Whig banner for us to rally under.

Scientific Sketches will also appear regularly.

We have made arrangements by which we will be enabled to present every week, excellent Medical Reports. This department will be under the supervision of one of the most eminent, experienced and skillful surgeons of this city, and cannot fail to be exceedingly interesting. There is not a medical journal published in New York, and something of the kind has been much needed. We trust our medical department will in a great measure supply the want of so desirable a publication.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS, we shall give as fully as possible, and we intend to copy largely from the French and English papers.

FOREIGN LITERATURE will meet with careful attention. Our resources in this department are inexhaustible. German and French Literature will be particularly noticed. This department is supplied by one of the best scholars of the country.

HISTORICAL SKETCHES will appear frequently, and care will be observed to have them correct.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES of prominent men, will form a portion of the reading matter of the Weekly Whig. It is our intention to furnish accurate wood cut likenesses of our native poets.

THE DRAMA we take under our special keeping, and while we shall endeavor to do justice to the talented, we shall also closely criticize the wretched failures so constantly committed upon the stage.

REASONS FOR CHILDREN will be furnished, with a wood cut ingeniously accompanying. Our object here will be to interest and amuse the rising generation.

THE MUSIC OF THE STAGE needs reformation, and it will become our duty to point out, as far as possible, several improvements which are absolutely required by the rapidly increasing intelligence of the community.

TO THE LADIES we have a word to say—we shall not forget their interests—balls, parties and the tedious will claim our notice frequently, and receive such attention as will please. We are fully aware, that to render our paper agreeable, we must receive the patronage and encouragement of our fair friends. We shall endeavor to do this, by always furnishing something suitable to their tastes.

TALKS OF ENGROSSING interest will always be found in the weekly whig.

Reviews of late publications, and notices of novels and romances, will be regularly given.

THE POETRY we publish will be carefully selected, and we have on hand already several beautiful pieces from known writers, which we shall soon insert.

GENERAL EDUCATION will form a prominent feature in the Weekly Whig, and we shall constantly furnish matter of the first importance to parents and teachers.

ENGRAVINGS. We have several capital wood cuts, and others now with the engravers, one or more which may be regularly expected in each weekly number. These are mostly from original designs, and will add much to the value of the paper.

COMMERCIAL. We have a person employed, who for a long time has been engaged in procuring commercial intelligence who is every way competent, and will devote the whole of his time to the New York Markets. Under our Commercial head will be found full reports of the Markets Price Current; Stock and Exchange; Bank Note Tables, and all matters calculated to interest business men who will all find it to their advantage to patronize us, as we intend in each weekly paper to insert the advertisements published in the Daily Whig during the week.

TERMS. Three dollars a year, in advance, and no paper will be furnished unless the terms are strictly complied with.

Orders for the paper must be addressed to the Publishers JAMES C. WILSON, at the office of the New York Daily Whig, 127 Nassau Street. No letters taken from the Post Office, unless post paid.

Communications may be addressed to the Editors, and sent also (postpaid) to the office of the Daily Whig.

Persons sending $3. dollars (post paid) will be entitled to two copies of the Weekly Whig for one year, or one copy for two years.

Those Editors who publish this Prospectus of the New York Weekly Whig, and send us their names, will receive an exchange for one year.

MONTICELLO ACADEMY.

THE TRUSTEES of this Institution take pleasure in announcing to the public, that the above Academy is now open for the reception of pupils of both sexes.

They have engaged the services of J. M. ELLIS, Esq., as superintendent of the Institution. Mr. Ellis is a regular graduate of Allegheny College, Pa., and he comes well recommended, not only as a finished scholar, but also as a gentleman of good moral character, and of experience in the duties of an instructor. From the acknowledged abilities of the Principal, the healthy location of Monticello, and from the large and commodious sized the Academy, we trust that it will meet with a generous and liberal patronage from all the true friends of Education in this and the adjacent counties. As soon as the number of pupils shall justify it, competent teachers in the male and female departments will be employed.

Terms of Tuition per month are as follows.

CLASS 1.

ATKINSON'S EVENING POST.

And Philadelphia Saturday News. A WEEKLY Family paper, devoted to Literature, Science, Arts, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, &c. &c., published in Philadelphia, at Two dollars per annum, payable in advance.

The subscriber having recently purchased the proprietorship of the PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS a weekly journal of wide circulation, and high literary character, proposes henceforth to issue that paper in connection with his own long established and well known periodical the EVENING POST. By the junction of these two journals, the list of subscribers to the united publication will be among the greatest in the United States. To preserve and extend this ample circulation, the subscriber is determined to make every effort which his means will allow. Among the early improvements which he proposes to introduce, will be a finer quality of paper and other mechanical changes which will tend to make the Evening Post and News one of the most elegant weekly papers which the country furnishes.

Upon the literary department of the Evening Post & News, the subscriber intends to bestow particular attention. The editorial management of the paper is committed to a gentleman of high reputation qualifications and character, and negotiations are now in progress by which the aid of the best talent in the country will be secured. With these accessions to his present able list of contributors, the subscriber does not hesitate to predict that in point of literary merit the Evening Post and News will speedily take rank among the first periodicals.

To his own patrons, many of whom have received the Evening Post since its commencement, the subscriber offers his assurance that the same attention to the circulation of sound morals, blended with profitable amusement and useful instruction, which in years past has secured their approbation, shall still direct to similar results; and to the patrons of the Saturday News, he offers assurance that the spirit, variety and abundance, both of original and selected literature, shall in no degree be diminished under his control. From the latter, therefore, he confidently expects a continuance of the favors so liberally bestowed on his predecessors, which it shall be his earnest study to merit.

Terms, single number of the paper for 1 year, $3. These copies 1 year.

Agents who favor us with $19 in current notes will be entitled to an extra volume of the Post, and a volume of the Casket for the year.

PARTICULAR NOTICE TO THOSE PERSONS WHO WISH TO TAKE THE POST AND NEWS.

All payments must positively be made in advance in as good current money as can be procured. Postage must invariably be paid on all communications addressed to the Publisher; unpaid letters are not taken from the post office, but are allowed to be returned to the general post office department at Washington.

Address S. C. ATKINSON, 38 Carter's Alley Philadelphia.

P. S.—Postmasters and others who are at present agents for the Saturday News are respectfully solicited to continue their aid in behalf of the joint publication.

Newspapers with whom exchange will be obliged by giving the above a few insertions, a favor not to be overlooked in several years—and those wishing to exchange by copying the above advertisement mailed is requested.

PROSPECTUS OF THE MISSISSIPPI JUSTICE, AND CONSTITUTIONAL GUIDE.

THE scarcity of the Revised Code and the sheet acts of the Legislature, and the difficulty with which the Justices and constables of this State supply themselves, and the great want of such a work, as a Justice of the Peace on my own part, has induced me to offer to the Justices and Constables of this State a digest of all the laws in force, in relation to their duties, &c., together with a complete set of forms of Deeds, Wills, Bonds, Acknowledgements of Dower, and other instruments.

To place such a work into the hands of Justices and Constables would save much trouble and time to officers for whom the work is intended. As the law now stands it is with the utmost difficulty to be ascertained whether a written law is in force or not, which often misleads us.

The work will be published in one Duodecimo volume, law binding, comprising from two hundred and fifty to three hundred pages, with a digested index of the contents, giving a condensed statement of all its contents. The work will be ready for delivery by the 1st of March 1839.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE AND REPUBLICAN REVIEW.

H. J. Barker, editor. THE National Magazine and Republican Review, will be published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 1st day of January next, and delivered monthly in all parts of the United States, devoted exclusively to the advancement of the great principles of the Whig party, and the encouragement of literature and science.

The experience of the past year has confirmed in the minds of the more reflecting and sagacious of the Whig party, that a vacuum exists in the political press of the country, in which should be combined the productions of our great statesmen on literary and scientific subjects, and those of the eminent literary geniuses of which the United States can boast so ample a store, on the various subjects that present themselves to a sound and vigorous intellect.

It cannot be doubted that the present crisis demands the publication of a work calculated to infuse and circulate true and honest political information, and to counteract the direful influence exerted by a monthly periodical of a similar nature published in this city, under the auspices, and bearing the name of the self-styled democracy of the present day, advocating the measures which, if successful, are destined to moulder to ruins, the fabric of our noble Constitution, by placing constructions on it to suit the caprice and advance the reachings of corrupt ambition.

The union of such principles with a general literature as have insulted the common sense and honesty of the country, by proclaiming the "Martyrdom of Gilley," rendered in a manner more detestable from the insidious way in which they are combined, tends directly to the disorganization of all that, as Americans, should be held most sacred. This combination is calculated to secure them a circulation in quarters to which they might not otherwise penetrate, as well as from a certain air of high-toned philanthropy and expansive liberality of views, with which they are artfully able to invest themselves, for the purpose of stealing their way into the heads through the unsuspecting hearts of that class on which depends the destiny and hopes of the nation—its young men. Whilst the more experienced sagacity of older heads can never hesitate a moment in recognizing the real naked deformity of these principles of modern Radicalism, under all the fair seeming disguises they may assume, yet to the young they are replete with a subtle danger of the most pernicious character.

The National Magazine and Republican Review, is indeed, and will be conducted with these and other equally important considerations in view calculated to correct misconstructions, and to inculcate the correct political principles on which are based the views and practice of the great Republican Whig party, as well as for the encouragement and maintenance of genuine polite literature.

The publishers will neither spare expense in the mechanical department of the work, nor their utmost efforts to render the Review useful to the public in a literary point of view, and honorable to the country and cause which it is destined to espouse as a National work.

The period is fast arriving when the country will emerge from the dominion of a party which has come into power under the corrupt influence of a misled popular prejudice, and which has advocated and sailed under the broad and corrupt motto of office seekers, "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished;" being alike anti-republican, unconstitutional, and a foul stain upon the free institutions of the country, that can only be eradicated by the triumph of the principles which govern the Republican Whig party of the present day.

The advocates of the principles alluded to, who have stood foremost in defence of the Constitution and Laws when they were as diminutive as a party could be, exerting the strength of a Leonidas battling with the host of Xerxes, and have nearly succeeded in rescuing the government from the grasp of corruption, will deem it their imperative duty to continue their efforts, and it cannot be better done than by supporting a periodical of high standing for sound political principle and literary worth; and such an one will be found in the National Magazine and Republican Review.

The success of the Magazine will therefore depend, in a measure, on the great body of the opponents of the present Administration, whose interest it will be to aid in its permanent establishment. And it will be equally binding on the talented and patriotic band of leading Whigs to spare neither time nor labor to the explanation and advocacy of the true and only principles on which depends the great experiment of Republican Government.

Having made these few remarks on the political east of the publication, we feel confident that its utility will be readily perceived by the Public, and fully appreciated. In addition to the political features, the following will be the principal subjects on which the Review will treat, from the pens of the most celebrated writers of the present day.

Reviews and Critical Notices will occupy a part of each page, thereby giving praise to genius, and censure to such productions as are unworthily degrading of it.

A sketch of the proceedings of Congress will be given at the close of each session, in which will be explained the cause and effect of all prominent acts and measures, compiled by a gentleman of acknowledged ability and opportunity to arrange and collect such matters as will prove both interesting and instructive.

Election Returns will be given in a tabular form, embracing all elections of importance in the various States, as early as practicable after the reception of official returns.

Essays and Tales also form an important part of the work, and all original articles of this character will receive prompt attention. The object of the publishers, next to enhancing the good cause in which they have embarked, will be to furnish the reader with such matters as will both instruct and amuse, such as:

Sketches and Reminiscences of events too minute for history.

Biographical and Historical Sketches of distinguished personages, &c.

Original Poetry will be well sprinkled through its pages.

Reprintings of distinguished Statesmen. If the work should receive the same encouragement as is usually extended to periodicals of a literary and scientific character, the subscribers to the Review will not only find their numbers embellished with these desirable plates, but also with many other valuable improvements.

TERMS.—The National Magazine and Republican Review will be published in monthly numbers of eighty octavo pages each, on fine paper, with new and handsome type, and in the most approved and mechanical typographical appearance, at the moderate price of Five Dollars a year, payable in all cases in advance, or on the delivery of the third number, without respect to postage.

Any person forwarding ten respectable subscribers, and becoming responsible for the amount of their subscriptions for the first year, shall receive a copy gratis, long as they may continue subscribers.

The publishers will be responsible for all moneys forwarded by mail, in case of miscarriage, provided the certificate of the Post Master shall be secured, and copies forwarded accordingly.

If a subscriber shall not order his subscription to be discontinued at the expiration of the year, he shall be considered as wishing the Review continued which shall be forwarded, and the subscription money expected on the receipt of the third number upon the first instance.

Non-compliance taken for a less term than one year.

All communications, post paid, addressed to the publishers at their residence, Georgetown, D. C., will receive prompt attention. Publishers of newspapers will copy the foregoing prospectus and send a copy of the work in exchange.

FULLON & SMITH, Georgetown, D. C. Oct. 30, 1838.

PROSPECTUS OF THE LADY'S BOOK.

HAVING a larger circulation than any other Monthly Periodical in America. A COLOURED PLATE OF THE LATEST FASHION IN EVERY NUMBER.

Important Announcement.

IT WAS with sincere pleasure that the publishers mentioned last season, the arrangement by which the LADY'S BOOK AND LADIES AMERICAN MAGAZINE, were UNITED, AND TO BE EDITED BY

Mrs. SARAH J. HALE. It is with equal pleasure that he now informs the patrons of the work, that he has made an arrangement with MISS LESLIE, Actress of Pencil Sketches, Mrs. Washington Potts, &c. &c., who will be connected with Mrs. Hale in lending interest to the pages of the Lady's Book. Her powerful aid will commence with the January Number, 1839. In addition to the above, every number of the work next year will contain A PLATE OF SUPERBLY COLORED FASHIONS.

The subscriber endeavors by extraordinary endeavors to show his gratitude for the very many favors he has received from his kind friends, the public. From among the many female writers of America perhaps no two Ladies could have been selected, whose varied talents are so well calculated to adorn a work like the Lady's Book. What is also mentioned that

MRS. SIGOURNEY, THE HEMANS OF AMERICA and GREENVILLE MELLE, are contributors to the periodical department, it will be useless to waste argument in endeavoring to show what is apparent, that the Lady's Book will stand unrivalled among the periodicals of the country.

Each number also contains two pages of FAVORABLE MUSIC—in many a case original.

TERMS.

The terms of the Lady's Book is Three Dollars per annum, or Two Copies for Five Dollars payable in advance.

All orders must be addressed to J. A. GODEY.

Literary Rooms, 211, Chesnut Street, one door below Seventh, Philadelphia.

As the publisher of the Lady's Book is connected with other popular periodicals, he suggests, for the purpose of remittance, the following
